The 2023 Les Griffons de Pichon Baron is superb. Silky, elegant and wonderfully refined, the Griffons is all class, all the way. I admire its mid-weight structure and polished feel. All the elements are so nicely balanced.[...]

(91-93)/100

Neal Martin

[...] a very pretty Les Griffons with white pepper and a dab of lemon rind that lends tension on the finish. This is not a powerful Pauillac, but it is flush with charm.

[...] Pierre has always aimed to reveal the elegant side of Les Griffons [...], he has significantly increased the proportion of Cabernet Sauvignon (57%), while making the palate even rounder, a transformation that is quite surprising. What's more, I finally see in the 2023 vintage the return of the structure and power of previous vintages [...].

93/100

[...] 2023 Les Griffons De Pichon Baron is more serious, with a focused, straight, structured style. [...] it's medium-bodied and focused, with plenty of structure and outstanding length. I think it will be longer-lived than the Tourelles, but both of these so-called second wines are beautiful.

[...] Rich and deep but smooth and grippy, I love the cool freshness you get here [...]. A controlled wine, well defined, harmonious, nothing sticking out, with lifted acidity. Quite lean, and prominent minerality on the finish gives some tension and compaction, but I like the weight and think this will age well.
