[...] Un très grand vin qui suit une trajectoire orientée vers l'excellence avec des tannins fins et une acidité structurante comme source énergétique ! Il est brillant, précis et souligne son terroir, sa nature, son identité.

[...] The energy, presence, depth, and power I longed for have all returned [...]. Pierre's precise control of details is évident [...]. Yes, I must emphasize once again, this is Château Pichon Baron in my heart, a true Baron with "lion's heart."

[...] Le style est pur, classique, altier. Palais profond, racinaire, mâche saline, ses merlots viennent harmoniser, adoucir la trame aussi voluptueuse qu'en 2022, mais signant un très grand flacon.

La Revue du Vin de France

Encore un Pichon qui s'inscrit dans la longue lignée des très belles réussites. Il est d'ailleurs extrêmement classique dans sa forme. Tenu par des cabernets séveux et structurants, il déploie une très grande allonge, avec des tanins racés et finement enrobés. Nul doute qu'il ira très loin.

[...] Finely delineated, with a sense of inter-layer pixilation and a crystalline character and finesse that I've never felt here before but that is very consistent with the direction of travel of this wine over recent vintages. The closest in signature to the 2019 for me, but with the additional density of 2010, 2016 or 2020. [...]

[...] The 2023 is a quintessential Pauillac that will age gracefully over the next 30 or 40 years. It reminds me a little of the 2019. Classic "P.B."

[...] Cassis, black raspberries, spice oak, graphite, and almost a bloody, salty, incredibly mineral character are followed by a medium to full-bodied, beautifully textured, and concentrated red, with a deep purple hue, nicely integrated acidity, and beautiful yet building tannins.
